RED WINES BY THE BOTTLE

OLD WORLD WINE REGIONS

The Old World wines say,

"We don't just follow the rules. We made the rules."

The lines of the Old World wine regions are drawn by where modern winemaking traditions first originated. When it comes to old world, the operative word is "influence." These are the places that exported not only their grapes and wines to other countries, but their winemakers and traditions as well.

is so you can break them later."
